

Den Building

Den Building is situated adjacent to Action Challenge. The surface within the area is of a natural woodland environment which some guests may find challenging.

There is a hard standing path running through the Den Building area, the ground to each side of this has uneven terrain where the dens are located.

Please advise Activity Den staff at time of booking and they will offer advice and extra assistance where required.