

Outdoor Activity Centre

The Outdoor Activity Centre is located on the perimeter of the Center Parcs site. It is reached by a pathway from the Arrivals Lodge, which crosses the main drive way and continues down a steep pathway to the centre where there is Cycle Park available.

There are viewing areas available in some areas, but it is necessary to cover rough terrain to access these.

There is an adapted toilet and changing facility within the main reception building.

A Mobility vehicle is available to access this activity for wheelchair users and ambulant guests who have difficulty walking substantial distances. Please note that due to space constraints, only the person who is unable to walk and two others can be carried in the vehicle. Please notify the staff at the time of booking if this service is required.

A portable induction loop is available on request in the main building.

Paintballing

This activity involves traversing on a forest environment on foot at speed to shoot at fellow players. Barricades are fixed in various locations and the event involves running between them. The playing arena, although on level ground, has a forest floor surface and areas of loose bark chippings which in adverse weather conditions becomes harder to negotiate

The age limit for his activity is 12 years and older however, 12-13-year olds need a participating adult with them. The fundamental aim of this activity means that it may be challenging for those with limited degree of mobility, or those with impaired sight.

To take part in this activity it is important that all participants can follow and abide by instructions given by the instructor.

Quad Safari

This activity involves riding a quad vehicle around a designated track. Being able to turn the handle bars and apply the brakes effectively is essential on this activity. Participants must be able to touch the footpads with their feet, the age limit for this activity is 12 years and older, the weight limit for this activity is a maximum 21.7 stone / 138kg. The fundamental aim of this activity means that it may be challenging for those with limited mobility or impaired sight.

To take part in this activity it is important that all participants can follow and abide by instructions given by the instructor.

Junior Quad Biking

This activity involves riding a quad vehicle around a designated track. Being able to turn the handle bars and apply the brakes effectively is essential on this activity. Participants must be able to touch the footpads with their feet.

The age limit for this activity is 6-11 years old and the maximum weight limit is 6.4 stone / 41kg. The fundamental aim of this activity means that it may be challenging for those with limited mobility or with impaired sight.

To take part in this activity it is important that all participants can follow and abide by instructions given by the instructor.

Laser Combat

This activity involves traversing on a forest environment on foot at speed to shoot at fellow players. Situated in the laser combat field are various size and shaped buildings and barricades which will be used as cover. The playing arena is on a decline and in adverse weather conditions can become harder to negotiate.

The age limit for this activity is 6 years and older however, 6-8 years need to be accompanied by a participating adult. The fundamental aim of this activity means that it may be challenging for those with limited degree of mobility, or those with impaired sight

To take part in this activity it is important that all participants can follow and abide by instructions given by the instructor.

Laser Clay Shoot Out

This is situated in the area of the Target Centre although accessible to wheelchairs, help may be required as the surface of the shooting area is woodchip.

This activity would not be suitable for persons with no or very limited sight. Guests with partial sight can participate in this activity with verbal instruction and physical assistance from the Instructor or a member of the guest's party.

To take part in this activity it is important that all participants can follow and abide by the instructions given by the tutor.

Target Archery

This activity involves shooting at target faces approximately 15m away. The ground around the shooting line is even and bark chipped. This means this activity is suitable for guests using wheelchairs. Guests with partial sight can participate in this activity with verbal instruction and physical assistance from the instructor or a member of the guest's party. Please note enough upper body strength is needed to draw the bow fully.

The age limit for this activity is 10 years and older.

To take part in this activity it is important that all participants can follow and abide by instructions given by a qualified instructor.

Field Archery

This activity involves shooting at targets resembling woodland animals approximately 15m away. The ground around the shooting line is of a forest environment and in adverse weather conditions can become harder to negotiate.

This means this activity is unlikely to be suitable for guests using wheelchairs. Guests with partial sight can participate in this activity with verbal instruction and physical assistance from the instructor or a member of the guest's party. Please note enough upper body strength is needed to draw the bow fully.

The age limit for this activity is 10years and older.

To take part in this activity it is important that all participants can follow and abide by instructions given by a qualified instructor.

Crossbow

This activity involves shooting a crossbow at targets face located approximately 10m from the shooting line. Being able to cock the crossbow and effectively aim is essential on this activity. The crossbows are attached to a beam roughly 4-5 feet off the ground.

Participants must be at least 12 years old. The area that the Crossbows are attached is even and wood chipped. The fundamental aim of this activity means that it may be challenging for those with limited mobility or with impaired sight.

To take part in this activity it is important that all participants can follow and abide by instructions given by the instructor.

Off-Road Explorer

This activity involves driving a small vehicle around a designated track. Being able to turn the steering wheel and press the pedal effectively is essential on this activity. Also, another necessity is that the participants must be able to sit safely inside the vehicle.

The age range for this activity is 3-7 years old. One designated mobile adult is required to support each child on this activity. The fundamental aim of this activity means that it may be challenging for those with limited mobility or with impaired sight.

To take part in this activity it is important that all participants can follow and abide by instructions given by the instructor.

Segway Experience

This activity involves riding a Segway around a designated practice track and then onto an off-road section including obstacles. Being able to distribute your weight by leaning backwards and forwards is necessary. The ability to stand for a moderately long period of time is required which is approx. 45 minutes.

The age limit for this activity is 12 years and older, the weight limit for this activity is minimum of 7 stone / 44.5kg and a maximum of 18.7 stone / 117.5kg. The fundamental aim of this activity means that it may be challenging for those with limited mobility or with impaired sight.

To take part in this activity it is important that all participants can follow and abide by instructions given by the instructor.