

Pottery Studio

The Pottery Studio has level access and the layout is free standing so wheelchairs can be accommodated. Pottery is an unsupervised activity, although Center Parcs staff will be on hand to guide the activity and give assistance if requested. The pots are fired by Center Parcs staff, in the back of house area and not in the public activity area.

Entrance

There is level access to this location however, the manually operated double doors used singularly are too narrow and both doors will need to be opened for wheelchair access. A member of staff will be happy to help if required.

Shelf height for bisques

Bisques are on both low and high levels that may be difficult to reach for guests with limited mobility, staff will be happy to assist.

Pricing / Offers / Signs

If you experience difficulties reading prices or other literature, please ask for assistance as necessary.

Tables

All tables inside and outside the studio are accessible to wheelchair users. Space can be limited at busy times, please ask a staff member for assistance.

Toilets

Accessible toilets are available in an adjoining corridor through a manually operated door at this location.

The Pottery Studio allows carer places on Leisure activities without payment. Any pottery painted will be subject to charge.
