

Hucks

Hucks is a seated service restaurant with a split level dining area

The restaurant is sited within the Village Centre and is adjacent to the lower level doors. Access to the upper level is via a lift.

Access to the restaurant is via 2 steps or a ramp located to the right of the main restaurant entrance leading to the host/reception area.

A further 3 steps or assisted power lift lead into the main seating part of the restaurant.

Lighting in the restaurant is subdued during evening service.

Accessible toilets are available in Hucks and also have baby changing facilities

The majority of tables are booths/banquette style seating with some unfixed and moveable chairs to allow full access however there are several booths which only have access for wheelchairs/prams at one end. The bench-type seating either side of the booth tables can be difficult for some to access
