

Geo Caching

This activity is a competition between groups to find the plastic rocks around the site which have letters in side them.

The route covers the whole village. Some caches can be located slightly off the pathways or road ways. All path ways are tarmacked.

Please refer to the General Car Parking and Vehicle Use section for further details regarding village topography